B.A CRIMINOLOGY & FORENSIC SCIENCE | PSYCHOLOGY | SOCIOLOGY

About

A Bachelor of Arts in Criminology and Forensic Science, Psychology and Sociology is a multidisciplinary program that helps students gain a broad and diverse set of skills and knowledge.

CRIMINOLOGY AND FORENSIC SCIENCE: Criminology and Forensic Science is a discipline that studies the underlying causes of criminal behavior and the application of scientific methods to criminal cases. It focuses on the causes and outcomes of criminal behavior and also delves into how society deals with criminals.

PSYCHOLOGY: Psychology is the study of human behavior, thoughts and experiences. Psychology also helps students to analyze criminal behaviors with an understanding of the decision-making process behind different actions.

SOCIOLOGY: The subject deals with the study of social life and it explores the dynamics and repercussions of human actions within society.

Career Scope

To thrive in the modern world, students must possess knowledge across multiple fields and approach tasks from holistic perspectives, making triple-major degree programs increasingly essential. Upon completion of such programs, graduates can pursue diverse career options, including law enforcement, criminal justice, social services, sociology, journalism, private investigation practices, academia, and research.

Eligibility

Pass in Pre-University / Higher Secondary / 10+2 / 'A' Level or equivalent of any recognized board or council in any discipline with English as one of the languages.
